FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Michael Taylor Named Focused Health Solutions Executive Vice President

Deerfield, February 18, 2010 – Focused Health Solutions, a leading provider of integrated population health management services, has named Michael Taylor to the newly created position of Executive Vice President, Business Development and Strategy. With more than 20 years of market changing experience in consumer-driven healthcare, Taylor is responsible for Focused Health Solutions' sales, marketing, client services and product development efforts.

Previously, Taylor was a management team member of the venture capital-backed Lumenos, an innovator in consumer-driven healthcare. He also served in senior management positions at LifeMasters, a national disease management company, and at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, a $7 billion global healthcare provider.

"Following our two-year operational and infrastructure investment, Focused Health Solutions is well-positioned to accelerate growth," said Charlene Bonvissuto, President and CEO of Focused Health Solutions. "We are confident that Michael's deep solutions-based selling and client service experience will drive our growth and delivery of total population health management solutions."

Taylor is also a nationally recognized speaker on the subjects of healthcare consumerism and employer cost containment. He is a former political journalist with Congressional Quarterly and U.S. News & World Report.

"The Focused Health Solutions integrated disease management and wellness solution is producing outstanding clinical and financial outcomes with high levels of client and participant satisfaction," Taylor said. "The company's single technology platform integration offers a seamless participant experience, and its' capability to deliver timely and accurate reports stands alone in the market."
